MEDICINAL.

For over a quarter of a century, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been effecting cures of Bronchitis, Throat and Lung affections. Weak Lungs, Bleeding from Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, all lingering Coughs, Consumption, or Lung Scrofula and kindred maladies, are cured by it.

REDUCED TO A SKELETON.
Mrs. MIRA MILLS, of Sardinia, Big Stone Co., Minn., writes: "One year ago I was given up by my family physician and friends; all said I must die. My lungs were badly affected, and body reduced to a skeleton. My people commenced to give me your 'Medical Discovery' and I soon began to mend. It was not long before I became well enough to take charge of my household duties again. I owe my recovery to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

PUTTY BLOWER DOWN HIS THROAT

Geo. Slingland, aged 6 years, is a patient in the General Hospital, at Paterson, N. J., with a probably mortal injury to his neck caused by a putty blower. While the lad, when on a pile of boards with a number of playmates on Tuesday was blowing balls of putty from the blower at another boy across the street, a gruff-voiced carpenter ordered the children to get off the lumber. The boy was so frightened that he fell from the lumber upon his face. The putty blower was forced down his throat, puncturing the tonsil on the right side and coming out of the neck back of the right ear. It cut a large artery in the neck in transit.

As soon as the boy regained his feet he grasped the end of the tube that protruded from his mouth and jerked it out of the wound without wincing. He did not cry until he saw the blood spurting from the severed artery. He was carried into his home, and at sight of the blood-covered face his mother fainted. She is said to be in a critical condition from shock.

When George's father, George Slingland, driver of the fire department supply wagon, left the house, the boy begged him for a penny with which to buy a putty blower. The father took the boy on his knee and, after kissing him fondly, said:

"Don't buy a putty blower, Georgie; they are dangerous toys for little boys. I once knew of a little boy who swallowed a putty blower, and it killed him."

But when Georgie saw the other boys with putty blowers the temptation was too strong for him to resist and he bought one. Dr. Merritt, the house physician, says the boy had no pulse when he was received at the hospital, and that his condition is more than critical.

MARRIED ELEVEN TIMES.—A woman who was, until recently, Mrs. Dr. Spencer, of Bourbon, Ind., has just been joined in wedlock to her 11th husband, and as the bride of to-day is but 44 years old, time may possibly record many other matrimonial alliances.

Her career is believed to be one of the most remarkable on record and her uxormania is only equalled by her ability to annul marriage contracts. She was a bride when a girl of 15 summers, and her first venture was more successful in point of time than any of them, ten years elapsing before that marriage was demonstrated to be a complete failure. She was separated from the second and third husbands.

The fourth was wedded as the sequel of a romance. A convict in the Joliet jail won her good graces, and a pardon, which was granted by a sympathetic Governor, ended this union and the season of mourning was followed by the choice of a fifth and sixth husband from a legion of suitors. A charge of bigamy was disproven in connection with the marriage of a seventh husband, who gave her statutory grounds for a divorce.

The eighth husband was secured through the medium of a matrimonial paper, but his life had a tragic ending and at the age of 26 she concluded negotiations with S. H. Brown, No. 9, with whom she lived for two years, and to this union the first child was born. Brown disappeared and the next alliance, with Dr. Spencer, a venerable physician, was terminated by his sudden death.

The courts of that State fail to record a parallel with the ex-Mrs. Spencer's checkered matrimonial life.

THE BREATH of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spiny bones are attacked, and frequently destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing invertebrate bronchitis, which is usually the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results by its use for years past properly designate Ely's Catarrh Balm as by far the best and only cure. Call upon your druggist for it.
